

Briefing to the Incoming Minister (BIM)

We provided the incoming Minister Responsible for Social Development, Hon Carmel Sepuloni, with the following Briefing to the Incoming Minister (BIM) in December 2017.

The BIM:

- outlines how we help government agencies, NGOs and others to better understand people's social needs
- talks about how we drive the increased use of evidence to achieve better social outcomes
- looks at how we help make the system work better for people

[Read the BIM. \[PDF, 1.6 MB\]](#)

Find out about the Minister Responsible for Social Investment, Hon Carmel Sepuloni .

Please note: Where appropriate, some information may be withheld, in accordance with the Official Information Act 1982

Other BIM documents

Date	Minister	BIM outlines	Document/Pdf
July 2019	Associate Minister for Social Development, Hon Poto Williams	The BIM: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • introduces the SIA • outlines our work programme for 2019 • outlines Tāngata, our people strategy. 	Read the BIM [PDF, 1019 KB] Read the attachment [PDF, 368 KB]
December 2016	Minister Responsible for Social Investment, Hon Amy Adams	The BIM: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • outlines our work plan for the year • discusses why social investment matters • looks at what changes are required to successfully embed a social investment approach. 	Read the BIM [PDF, 1.4 MB]